FROM THE HEADMASTER...

It is a pleasure to contribute to the first issue of a Warwick Academy Yearbook which has resulted from the sincere efforts of a group of senior pupils and to wish their venture its deserved success.

For many years it has been my privilege to do my best to serve the needs of all who have passed through this school in so doing it has been a source of great pleasure, indeed pride, to me to see the steady improvement in our facilities, in the calibre of the teaching staff and in the scholastic successes of the pupils in succeeding years.

To those of you who form part of the record contained in this Yearbook, I wish you great success in your personal lives, in your future education and in your chosen careers. Fortunate indeed is the person who can achieve success in all of these but your years at Warwick Academy will serve you well in the years ahead. Your personal character as well as your record of scholastic attainments have developed steadily through childhood and adolescence and have now reached the important stage when you must move on into the adult world to take your places in the community.

May you do so with great credit to yourselves, your families and to your old school.

G. G. Lamacraft, M.A., B.Sc.,
Headmaster.

...AND THE SENIOR MASTER

AND MISTRESS

It is not often that a History teacher is present at the beginning of a new tradition, for usually we are forced to pick up threads from the tangled mass and leave them before they are the completed fabric. This is, however, the first yearbook that the senior students of Warwick Academy have produced and it will be interesting to see how the students of the future follow in the footsteps of their predecessors.

Many of you have already proven yourselves successful History students from the examination point of view but what you have done is the simplest form of History — both for teaching and learning. The American Revolutionary War which you lapped up so eagerly is a basic documented concept — a map in a textbook, twenty printed pages and a list of minor battles with affixed dates. Once the examination was over you could forget the importance and even the reality of this with few qualms.

I hope that all of you realise that you are experiencing your own history — one that is going to have a lasting effect upon your own lives. Whether at present you feel rebellious or docile in contact with 'the establishment' you will, I am sure, one day treasure this book with its memories of the past, even if you cannot conceive of the great age when *"My yesterdays have melted with my tomorrows,

And the present leaves one with no point of view."*

THE SCHOOL PRAYER

LOOK WITH FAVOUR WE PRAY THEE O LORD UPON THIS OUR SCHOOL: CHERISH AND STRENGTHEN WHATSOEVER IS BEST IN IT AND GRANT THAT IT MAY EVER STAND FIRM IN TRUTH AND RIGHTEOUSNESS: THAT HAPPINESS, BEAUTY AND REVERENCE MAY BE EVER FOUND WITHIN ITS WALLS AND ON ITS FIELDS AND THAT, SO LONG AS IT SHALL REMAIN, IT MAY STAND FOR ALL THINGS OF GOOD REPORT. THROUGH JESUS CHRIST OUR LORD. AMEN.

THE SCHOOL SONG

GAUDEAMUS IGITUR
JUVENES DUM SUMUS,
GAUDEAMUS IGITUR
JUVENES DUM SUMUS,
PER JUCUNDAM JUVENTUTEM,
PER BEATAM SENECTUTEM
QUO NON ASCENDAM,
QUO NON ASCENDAM.

Let us rejoice, therefore
while we are young.
Let us rejoice, therefore,
While we are young,
During happy youth,
During happy old-age
To what heights may I not ascend,
To what heights may I not ascend.

CONCINAMUS O SODALES
VIVAT ACADEMIA:
ECCE URSUS IAM RESURGENS,
ECCE NAVIS PORRO URGENS.
SEMPER SINT IN FLORE,
SEMPER SINT IN FLORE.

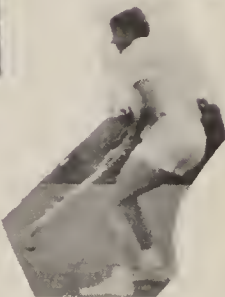

Let us sing together, school companions
Long live the school;
Let us sing together, school companions
Long live the school;
Behold the bear now rising up,
Behold the ship forward pressing.
May they always flourish,
May they always flourish.
